

Sandy Messick's Bio

Rev. Sandy Messick was called to serve the Florida region in July, 2022. She had previously served as the Regional Minister for the Northwest and Northern Lights Regions of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) for 13 years and as a congregational pastor for 20+ years before that.

She received her Bachelor's degree in Speech Communication from San Diego State University in California and her Master of Divinity Degree from Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis, IN and was ordained in December, 1989.

Sandy is married to Tom and together they have two adult children. Sarah is a teacher and instructional coach in Phoenix and John is in digital marketing in Seattle. After a career in health insurance for 35 years, Tom has returned to his ministry roots and is serving as Sr. Pastor for First Christian, Ocala, where they live. Sandy enjoys spending time with family, planning their next vacation, reading, running, and encouraging and supporting the pastors and congregations in Florida.
